Christ Church

Christ Church is one of the largest of the Oxford colleges and has evolved over five centuries. Its junior members, both undergraduate (over 400) and graduate students (over 200), cover almost all the major academic disciplines in the Sciences, Humanities and Social Sciences, as do its senior academic staff (around 60). It aims at academic excellence and individual fulfilment in a friendly, tolerant and mutually supportive environment. The head of Christ Church is the Dean, while the College's academic functions are overseen by the Senior Censor. More general information about the College may be obtained at www.chch.ox.ac.uk.

Christ Church provides all colleagues with a welcoming and inclusive workplace that enables everyone to develop and to do their best work. Join us and you will find a friendly, vibrant, democratic, and international community, with a great range of staff benefits.

Department information

The Conference and Events Manager will head up a small team to deliver a range of events. Events range from meetings, conferences, high dinners, through to drinks parties and summer schools. A key element of the role is the pro-active development of commercial revenue. This requires effective diary management, pro-active communication across all departments and meticulous attention to detail.

Role of the Conference and Events Manager

To take full ownership of the conference and event business and its delivery across the year. This includes bed and breakfast, summer school, external/internal client dinners, administration of all meeting rooms and refreshments, private hire ensuring all logistics and on the day operations run smoothly and align with client expectations. You'll understand wider business processes such as workforce and financial planning with experience of organisational design to define, shape and lead change. The role will suit someone who has strong team management skills to deliver high-end and large events, training a team in standards, is commercially minded and able to develop on trend offers to grow revenue opportunities.

Main Duties and Responsibilities

Event Management

- Providing the highest level of service to prospective clients (both internal and external) by offering comprehensive information, professional show rounds, quotes and pro-actively following up enquiries.
- Work closely with relevant departments to manage the event calendar i.e. Kitchen, Dining Hall, Lodge, Accommodation, Bar and Gardens/Grounds. This includes special dietary requirements, accommodation requirements, staffing requirements, use of gardens/grounds, and facilities access.
- Lead, train and provide the environment to aid the motivation of the conference and events team to deliver exceptional service.
- Act as the overarching main contact for the team during events, ensuring swift resolution of any issues.
- Anticipate challenges, identify solutions, and ensure every detail is meticulously managed for a flawless guest experience.
- Continuously evaluate and improve operational processes.
- Ability to use data, metrics, and evidence to inform and drive decision making and change across the events area.
- Ensuring a professional and customer focused service to our customers and clients.
- Work closely with the Accommodation Manager on all elements of Events planning, and in particular, to take responsibility for the effective allocation of rooms during vacation periods.
- Effective use of events software, to ensure a high level of planning and organisation at all times. Lead with any projects to implement new events and accommodation software as required.
- Carry out event risk assessments and monitor safety standards.

Revenue Generation

Able to grow revenues and optimise costs; including provision of reports to demonstrate alignment to budgets and targets, identification of new revenue streams, upselling to existing customers, early identification of challenges and an approach of providing solutions to 'keep/get back on track'.

This includes the development of positive relationships with partners including Conference Oxford, along with the development and management of pro-active sales campaigns as required.

Financial Management

Actively working with the team to ensure that commercial revenue is continuously developed, while carefully managing costs. Working closely with colleagues to regularly review pricing, menus, wine lists and other elements of our offer.

Person Specification

Essential

- Strong team management skills to develop the current team into highly capable and independent conference and events officers.
- Proven experience to make changes to the function and deliver excellent customer service.
- Exceptional communication and problem-solving skills.
- A passion for delivering outstanding service and a commitment to exceeding guest expectations.
- Good administration skills and high level of literacy.
- Highly organised with excellent computer literacy skills including operating knowledge of Microsoft office and the ability to understand and use other software packages.
- Knowledge and experience of reporting departmental financial data to evaluate performance and identify improvements needed.

Desirable

- Previous experience of leading an events team within a university college environment
